My name is Lisa Maldonado and I am writing this grievance against Howard Brown Health and Paul Rauseo, (VP of Human Resources, Diversity & Inclusion) ("client") located at 1025 West Sunnyside Ave in Chicago for Racial Employment Discrimination/Harassment, Humiliation, Intimidation, Bullying, Retaliation, Negligent and Constructive Discharge.

On February 9, 2021, Ashlee Moore, Staffing Manager at Robert Half International called and offered me a Hybrid (Onsite/Remote) Contract Recruiter Role to work for Howard Brown Health and asked if I could start working the next day, February 10th (Monday-Friday from 8am to 5pm). I wasn't provided a job interview or a job description; I had no sense of direction in this role. I had to learn and process as I went from day today. I worked for Robert Half International since June 2017 on multiple contract roles and was given a job description and an overview of the role and the primary responsibilities prior to my start date.

I spent my first two days (February 10th and 11th), onboarding (sexual harassment, cultural awareness online training). On February 12th, I started screening/rating applications in Paycom and created a spreadsheet for the details of each application that I screened and rated. In addition, I was trying to get organized and establish best practices for myself to be productive in the role.

Paul has been very difficult to work with since I started working for Howard Brown Health and this has been an ongoing issue with him.

Paul embarrassed me twice in front of the team during a zoom team meeting on February 16th and February 17th. On February 16th, during the zoom team meeting, Paul asked me for a TA (Talent Acquisition) report that I had no knowledge of, I replied, "I'm not sure what you are referring to, I'm confused." Paul yelled and said "I don't want to hear no excuses or stories, can someone help her articulate what I am asking for?" On February 17th, during the online team meeting, Paul asked me about the status of job descriptions, I replied "you are making me nervous!" I felt like Paul was attacking me with questions and was condensing by what he said, his aggressive tone, volume, and his body language toward me and it was very offensive and embarrassing.

On February 17th at 4:33pm (after work), I emailed Ashlee and asked her to call me and I reported what happened in the meeting with Paul. I also mentioned to Ashlee via email at 8:49pm that Paul scheduled an online meeting on my Outlook calendar for February 19th at 7:30am in regards my recruiting status update. Based on what happened during the meeting on February 16th and 17th with Paul, I told her that "I didn't feel comfortable meeting with Paul one-on-one." Ashlee replied via email on February 18th at 12:07pm "For the meeting on Friday I encourage you to speak to Paul. I would express to Paul how you feel regarding being called out in front of the team, and also absorb any feedback that he has for you as well. Unfortunately, we are unable to cancel any meetings that you would have with a direct supervisor." I responded to Ashlee via email at 5:26pm "I wasn't asking to cancel my meeting with Paul. I'm not comfortable by myself, would like for someone from the team to participate in the zoom meeting with me.” Ashlee did not respond. Even though I wasn’t comfortable, I proceeded with zoom meeting with Paul. He attempted to walk me through the process of generated a report from Paycom, in which; I took the initiative and generated my TA (Talent Acquisition) status report the night before the meeting (see email February 18th at 4:31pm). I sat respectfully in the meeting with Paul. Shortly after the meeting, some of the team members reached out via skype and asked if I was okay and how did it go?

On February 23rd, I worked from home. I submitted my recruiting status report to Paul before I logged off from work at 5pm. I received a message at 6:49pm from Michael Reynolds, co-worker via text at 6.49pm stated that Paul needed me to be in the office at 7:15am the next morning. I texted my Aaron Lawlor, Associate Director at Howard Brown 7:16pm and explained to him that in order for me to be at the office by 7:15am, I would have to leave my home at 4:30am or 5am, take public transportation which is a 2 hour commute to the office, it’s too dangerous for me to be out alone at that time of morning. I had previous conversations with Paul and Aaron about my 2 hour commute; my start time in the office was 9am to 5pm and work from home was 8am to 4pm. I never took more than a 15 minute break to eat (at home or the office). I notified Aaron every time I stepped away from my computer. I emailed Ashlee at 7:25pm and reported it to her. I also mentioned to Ashlee “I am really trying to fulfill this assignment to the best of my ability but Paul’s management styles make me uncomfortable and causes me anxiety not knowing what to expect from him day-to-day. I really need to work. Is there another assignment available?” No response from Ashlee.

Paul has created an extreme hostile work environment and has an unprofessional management style. The next morning, February 24th I woke up with a tension headache from stress and anxiety, I had to take an unpaid sick day. I notified Ashlee via email at 6:41am and Aaron via text at 6:47am that I wasn’t feeling well with a terrible headache.

On March 1st, Paul emailed me at 11:46am in regards to my recruiting results and threatened my contract and said “my contract will be assessed weekly starting today,” I replied, “I will continue to do my best” and that’s all I can do. I don’t have the authority to hire candidates, my responsibility is to screen/rate the application, forward applicants with a “3” rating to the hiring manager, conduct a phone interview, and provide the hiring manager with the feedback and notes. It’s the hiring manager’s decision, I don’t have that authority.

Please note, that I provided Paul via email with an update on February 26th at 11:21am, I have 11 candidates in the pipeline that are scheduled to move to the steps this week. I also provided Paul via email with my goals to fill 10 positions in the month of March.

On March 1st, it became overwhelming and unbearable to work with Paul. Because Paul bullied, humiliated, harassed, intimidated, retaliated and threatened my contract, I emailed Tracy Konrath, Division Director, Ashlee Moore, Staffing Manager at Robert Half International (Office Team), Paul Rauseo, VP of Human Resources and Aaron Lawlor (Associate Director) at Howard Brown Health at 3:39pm and stated "After careful consideration and speaking with my family, I have decided that it is not in my best interest to continue to work in a hostile work environment that is stressful, uncomfortable, and intimidating. With all due respect, Paul is insensitive, offensive and unreasonable. Please note that I have been a contractor with Robert half since 2017 and never had an issue. I am respectfully requesting a new HR role in a positive, respectful, and professional work environment.

Also, please provide me with a prepaid FedEx shipping label so I can return Howard Brown's Dell laptop and charger. Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this important matter!

I was treated unfairly and endured an ongoing racial discrimination, humiliation, negligent, retaliation, bullying, harassment, and intimidation. I pray no one else experience this kind of mistreatment.

I can be reached at 312-439-6703 and lisamaldonado217@gmail.com at your convenience.

Your prompt attention is to this matter is very important to me.

Respectfully,

Lisa Maldonado

THE EEOC IS CLOSING ITS FILE ON THIS CHARGE FOR THE FOLLOWING REASON:

The facts alleged in the charge fail to state a claim under any of the statutes enforced by the EEOC.

Your allegations did not involve a disability as defined by the Americans With Disabilities Act.

The Respondent employs less than the required number of employees or is not otherwise covered by the statutes.

Your charge was not timely filed with EEOC; in other words, you waited too long after the date(s) of the alleged discrimination to file your charge

The EEOC issues the following determination: The EEOC will not proceed further with its investigation, and makes no determination about whether further investigation would establish violations of the statute. This does not mean the claims have no merit. This determination does not certify that the respondent is in compliance with the statutes. The EEOC makes no finding as to the merits of any other issues that might be construed as having been raised by this charge.

The EEOC has adopted the findings of the state or local fair employment practices agency that investigated this charge.

- NOTICE OF SUIT RIGHTS -

(See the additional information attached to this form.)

Title VII, the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act, or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act: This will be the only notice of dismissal and of your right to sue that we will send you. You may file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) under federal law based on this charge in federal or state court. (The time limit for filing suit based on a claim under state law may be different.)

Equal Pay Act (EPA): EPA suits must be filed in federal or state court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment. This means that backpay due for any violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible.

INFORMATION RELATED TO FILING SUIT
UNDER THE LAWS ENFORCED BY THE EEOC

*(This information relates to filing suit in Federal or State court under Federal law.
If you also plan to sue claiming violations of State law, please be aware that time limits and other provisions of State law may be shorter or more limited than those described below.)*

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), the Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act (GINA), or the Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA):

In order to pursue this matter further, you must file a lawsuit against the respondent(s) named in the charge within 90 days of the date you receive this Notice. Therefore, you should keep a record of this date. Once this 90-day period is over, your right to sue based on the charge referred to in this Notice will be lost. If you intend to consult an attorney, you should do so promptly. Give your attorney a copy of this Notice, and its envelope or record of receipt, and tell him or her the date you received it. Furthermore, in order to avoid any question that you did not act in a timely manner, it is prudent that your suit be filed within 90 days of the date this Notice was issued to you (as indicated where the Notice is signed) or the date of the postmark or record of receipt, if later.

Your lawsuit may be filed in U.S. District Court or a State court of competent jurisdiction. (Usually, the appropriate State court is the general civil trial court.) Whether you file in Federal or State court is a matter for you to decide after talking to your attorney. Filing this Notice is not enough. You must file a "complaint" that contains a short statement of the facts of your case which shows that you are entitled to relief. Your suit may include any matter alleged in the charge or, to the extent permitted by court decisions, matters like or related to the matters alleged in the charge. Generally, suits are brought in the State where the alleged unlawful practice occurred, but in some cases can be brought where relevant employment records are kept, where the employment would have been, or where the respondent has its main office. If you have simple questions, you usually can get answers from the office of the clerk of the court where you are bringing suit, but do not expect that office to write your complaint or make legal strategy decisions for you.

PRIVATE SUIT RIGHTS -- Equal Pay Act (EPA):

EPA suits must be filed in court within 2 years (3 years for willful violations) of the alleged EPA underpayment: back pay due for violations that occurred more than 2 years (3 years) before you file suit may not be collectible. For example, if you were underpaid under the EPA for work performed from 7/1/08 to 12/1/08, you should file suit before 7/1/10 – not 12/1/10 -- in order to recover unpaid wages due for July 2008. This time limit for filing an EPA suit is separate from the 90-day filing period under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA referred to above. Therefore, if you also plan to sue under Title VII, the ADA, GINA or the ADEA, in addition to suing on the EPA claim, suit must be filed within 90 days of this Notice and within the 2- or 3-year EPA back pay recovery period.

ATTORNEY REPRESENTATION -- Title VII, the ADA or GINA:

If you cannot afford or have been unable to obtain a lawyer to represent you, the U.S. District Court having jurisdiction in your case may, in limited circumstances, assist you in obtaining a lawyer. Requests for such assistance must be made to the U.S. District Court in the form and manner it requires (you should be prepared to explain in detail your efforts to retain an attorney). Requests should be made well before the end of the 90-day period mentioned above, because such requests do not relieve you of the requirement to bring suit within 90 days.

ATTORNEY REFERRAL AND EEOC ASSISTANCE -- All Statutes:

You may contact the EEOC representative shown on your Notice if you need help in finding a lawyer or if you have any questions about your legal rights, including advice on which U.S. District Court can hear your case. If you need to inspect or obtain a copy of information in EEOC's file on the charge, please request it promptly in writing and provide your charge number (as shown on your Notice). While EEOC destroys charge files after a certain time, all charge files are kept for at least 6 months after our last action on the case. Therefore, if you file suit and want to review the charge file, please make your review request within 6 months of this Notice. (Before filing suit, any request should be made within the next 90 days.)

IF YOU FILE SUIT, PLEASE SEND A COPY OF YOUR COURT COMPLAINT TO THIS OFFICE.
